SECTION 10. If dues, fees, fines, or other assessments including amounts owed to the Board are not paid within 30 days after the due date, the nonpaying Member and the Designated REALTOR® are subject to suspension at the discretion of the Executive Committee. If payment is not received 60 days after the due date, membership services of the nonpaying Member and their Designated REALTOR® will be terminated at the discretion of the Executive Committee. However, no action shall be taken to suspend or expel a Member for nonpayment of disputed amounts until the accuracy of the amount owed has been confirmed by the Executive Committee. SECTION 2. Officer Duties: The duties of the officers shall be such as their titles, by general usage, would indicate and such as may be assigned to them respectively by the Board of Directors and the President of the Idaho REALTORS® from time to time, and such as are required by law. In the absence of the President, the President-Elect shall perform the President's normal and customary duties. In the absence of the President and President-elect, the First Vice President will perform the normal and customary duties of the President. The Immediate Past President may serve as a State Allocated National Director if duly elected to the position for a term that begins the year they serve as Immediate Past President. The First Vice President shall serve as the Treasurer of the Association. For the purposes of this section “absence” is defined as the temporary, inability, for any reason, to perform the duties of the office on a short-term basis of 30 days or less. Absences end upon the return or restoration of ability of the officer to assume their responsibilities.

SECTION 3. Chief Executive Officer: The Executive Committee of the Idaho REALTORS® selects and/or removes the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) who shall be the chief administrative officer of the Association, who may serve as the Secretary, ex-officio, without the right to vote and who shall perform such other duties as may be delegated to him/her by the Board of Directors. If further reduction is necessary, the reduction will be made in the order that subsequent State Allocated National Director terms expire.

In the event that a member who is serving as a NAR Director is appointed to a NAR position that entitles said member to an additional NAR vote; then said NAR Director may voluntarily and temporarily defer the NAR Director title and duties in order to allow another member to serve in the NAR Director position. In the event of such a deferral the President of the Idaho REALTORS® shall appoint an otherwise qualified member who shall temporarily serve as NAR Director. Should the original member elect to defer, the temporary deferral shall continue so long as the original member holds the additional NAR position and upon cessation of that position the original member shall automatically return to the office of NAR Director for the remainder of their term, if any. The deferral shall not extend the original NAR Director term of the original member. This paragraph shall not apply to any National Association of REALTORS® positions that serve the National Association of REALTORS® in a quasi-ex officio capacity based on their status as a State Allocated Director; as resigning the state allocated position would also disqualify the individual from their corresponding NAR position. A list of these positions can be found in the National Association of REALTORS® Constitution, which, in 2019 is Article IV, Section 6 and include the following positions: NAR Committee Liaison, NAR Executive Committee Member, NAR REALTOR® Party Director, NAR Vice President of Advocacy and NAR Vice President of Association Affairs.

SECTION 1. The Code of Ethics of the National Association of REALTORS® is adopted as the Code of Ethics of the Idaho REALTORS® and shall be considered a part of its Rules and Regulations, and the Code of Ethics and the Rules and Regulations of the Idaho REALTORS® shall, in the future, be deemed to be amended and changed whenever said Code of Ethics is amended or changed by the National Association.

SECTION 2. A local Board/Association, prior to referring an ethics complaint or arbitration request for review to the Idaho Association, should exhaust all efforts to impanel an impartial tribunal to conduct either the original hearing or the appeal or procedural review. These efforts may include the appointment of knowledgeable members of the Board/Association on an ad hoc basis to serve on either a hearing panel or on behalf of the Board of Directors. If, because of notoriety, etc., the Board/Association cannot impanel an impartial tribunal, the Board/Association may refer the matter to the Idaho REALTORS®, and the Idaho REALTORS® may delegate to another Board/Association or a regional professional standards panel, the authority to hear the case on behalf of the Idaho Association. No Board/Association, however, may be required to accept this delegation of authority. If no other entity is amenable to conducting the review, the Idaho REALTORS® shall be responsible for conducting the hearing.

SECTION 3. It shall be the duty and responsibility of every REALTOR® member of the Idaho REALTORS® to abide by the Constitution and Bylaws and the rules and regulations of the Association, the Constitution and Bylaws of the National Association of REALTORS®, and to abide by the Code of Ethics of the National Association of REALTORS®, including the duty to mediate and arbitrate controversies arising out of real estate transactions as specified by Article 17 of the Code of Ethics, and as further defined and in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of the National Association of REALTORS®, as from time to time amended.

SECTION 4. Allegations of ethical violations and contractual disputes (and specific non-contractual disputes as defined in Standard of Practice 17-4) between REALTORS® and between REALTORS® and their customers or clients may be submitted to an ethics or arbitration panel at the Idaho REALTORS® level under the following circumstances:

- (a) Allegations of unethical conduct made against a REALTOR® who is directly a member of the Idaho REALTORS® and not a member of any local Board/Association.
- (b) Allegations of unethical conduct made against a REALTOR® in the instance in which the local Board/Association, because of size or other valid reason, determines that it cannot provide a due process hearing of the matter and petitions the Idaho REALTORS® to conduct a hearing.
- (c) Contractual disputes (and specific non-contractual disputes as defined in Standard of Practice 17-4) between REALTORS® who are not members of the same Board where the matter has been referred to the Idaho REALTORS® by both local Boards.
- (d) Contractual disputes (and specific non-contractual disputes as defined in Standard of Practice 17-4) between REALTORS® who are directly members of the Idaho REALTORS® and are not members of any Board.
- (e) Contractual disputes (and specific non-contractual disputes as defined in Standard of Practice 17-4) between a REALTOR® who does not hold membership in any Board, but is directly a member of the State Association, and a REALTOR® who is a member of a Board.
- (f) Contractual disputes (and specific non-contractual disputes as defined in Standard of Practice 17-4) between REALTOR® Members of the same Board where the Board with good and sufficient reason is unable to arbitrate the controversy. (Explanation: This provision is not designed to relieve a local Board of its primary responsibility to resolve differences arising between members of the same Board. The section recognizes that in some Boards with limited membership, usual arbitration procedures may be impossible.)
- (g) Contractual disputes between a customer or a client and a REALTOR® where the Board with good and sufficient reason is unable to arbitrate the dispute or the REALTOR® is a direct member of the State Association.

SECTION 5. Any REALTOR® member of the association may be disciplined by the board of directors for violations of the Code of Ethics or other duties of membership, after a hearing as described in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of the association, provided that the discipline imposed is consistent with the discipline authorized by the Professional Standards Committee of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® as set forth in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of the National Association. It shall be the responsibility of the association and of association members relating to the enforcement of the Code of Ethics, the disciplining of members, and the mediation and arbitration of disputes, and the organization and procedures incident thereto, shall be governed by the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®, as amended from time to time, which is by this reference incorporated into these Bylaws, provided, however, that any provision deemed inconsistent with state law shall be deleted or amended to comply with state law.

SECTION 6. If a REALTOR® Member (as defined in Article II, Section 4, of these bylaws) resigns from the Board or otherwise causes membership to terminate with an ethics complaint pending, the complaint shall be processed until the decision of the association with respect to disposition of the complaint is final by this association (if respondent does not hold membership in any other association) or by any other association in which the respondent continues to hold membership. If an ethics respondent resigns or otherwise causes membership in all Boards to terminate before an ethics complaint is filed alleging unethical conduct occurred while the respondent was a REALTOR®, the complaint, once filed, shall be processed until the decision of the association with respect to disposition of the complaint is final. In any instance where an ethics hearing is held subsequent to an ethic respondent's resignation or membership termination, any discipline ratified by the Board of Directors shall be held in abeyance until such time as the respondent rejoins an association of REALTORS®.

If a REALTOR® Member (as defined in Article II, Section 4, of these bylaws) resigns or otherwise causes membership to terminate, the duty to submit to mediation then arbitration continues in effect even after membership lapses or is terminated, provided that the dispute arose while the former member was a REALTOR®.

SECTION 7. New member Code of Ethics orientation: Applicants for REALTOR® membership and provisional REALTOR® members (where applicable) shall complete an orientation program on the Code of Ethics of not less than two hours and thirty minutes of instructional time. This requirement does not apply to applicants for REALTOR® membership or provisional members who have completed comparable orientation in another association, provided that REALTOR® membership has been continuous, or that any break in membership is for one year or less. Failure to satisfy this requirement within 90 days of the date of application (or, alternatively, the date that provisional membership was granted), will result in denial of the membership application or termination of provisional membership.

SECTION 8. Continuing member Code of Ethics training: Effective January 1, 2017, through December 31, 2018, and for successive two-year periods thereafter, each REALTOR® member of the Idaho REALTORS® (except for REALTOR® members granted REALTOR® Emeritus status by the National Association) shall be required to complete ethics training of not less than two (2) hours and thirty (30) minutes of instructional time. This requirement will be satisfied upon presentation of documentation that the member has completed a course of instruction conducted by this or another association, the Idaho REALTORS®, the National Association of REALTORS®, or any other recognized educational institution or provider which meets the learning objectives and minimum criteria established by the National Association of REALTORS® from time to time. REALTOR® members who have completed training as a requirement of membership in another association and REALTOR® members who have completed the New Member Code of Ethics Orientation during any two (2) year cycle shall not be required to complete additional ethics training until a new two (2) year cycle commences. Failure to satisfy this requirement shall be considered a violation of a membership duty for which REALTOR® membership shall be suspended until such time as the training is completed.

Failure to meet the requirement in any two (2) year cycle will result in suspension of membership for the first two months (January and February) of the year following the end of any two (2)-year cycle or until the requirement is met, whichever occurs sooner. On March 1 of that year, the membership of a member who is still suspended as of that date will be automatically terminated.
