PROGRAM OVERVIEW

There is no offseason in politics. Policy is being discussed, developed and decided every day. At the national level we have federal political coordinators (FPC) interacting with members of our congressional delegation and advocating for members on issues important to REALTORS®. We believe advocacy is one of the most important aspects of what we do as REALTORS®. We want to replicate the success of the FPC program at the state legislative level. Having members in the community serving as liaisons to legislators will provide a trusted voice on industry issues and continue to foster meaningful relationships between REALTORS® and legislators.

Idaho State Political Coordinator Responsibilities include:

- Advocating for approved policies or positions, as determined by the Idaho REALTORS®, that benefit REALTORS® and promote private property rights;
- Meeting at least once a month with assigned legislators in your district;
- Educating legislators in your district on issues important to REALTORS®, the real estate industry, private property and homeownership;
- Establishing yourself as a credible and trusted resource to your legislators by becoming a local voice for REALTOR® issues;
- Responding to all calls to action from NAR, Idaho REALTORS® and your local association, if applicable;
- Attending a mandatory orientation session during Idaho REALTORS® Annual Convention; and
- Attending the Idaho REALTORS® Day at the Capitol, local legislative meetings and other legislative events.
